

About the Journal

The SIES Journal of Humanities is a peer reviewed double-blind multi disciplinary annual online research journal. It aims to bring interdisciplinary perspectives in social sciences to reflect on varied paradigms, perspectives, comprehensions and contemplations. The journal is a step ahead to continue the legacy of the research culture of the institution.

Published by: The South Indian Education Society

Contact us: siesjournalofhumanities@gmail.com www.siesascs.edu.in

CONTENTS

Feminism Echoed in the World Cinema: A Discourse - Dr. Amita Valmiki.....1

Rise of true events in OTT: An analysis through two series Trial by Fire and Jamtara - Arindam Basu.....14

Culture of Friendship- A Philosophical Study in Indian Tradition - *Dr. Kamala Srinivas*29

Culture, Culinary Connection and its Resonance in Cinema: A Study of Axone and Gulabjaam - Dr. Kirti Y. Nakhare.....42

A Gendered Reading of Rocky aur Rani kii Prem Kahaani - Prof. Dr. Lakshmi Muthukumar.....53

Cinematic Chronicles: Bhalji Pendharkar’s Exploration of Royal Period of Maratha History through Films- Nachiket Paradkar.....65

An Analytical Study on the Contribution of Literature towards the Development and Commercial Success of Mainstream Cinema - Nimit R. Sachde.....76

Tracing the Nehruvian Ideology through the Lens of Hindi Cinema - Dr. Rashmi Bhure.....93

An Exploration of the Cinematic Geography of Dir. Manikandan’s Kaakka Muttai (Crow’s Eggs)- Ms. Saradha Balasubramanian.....104

The economic influence of Cultural Capital: A study on Yoga and its market dynamics - Dr. Shruti Panday.....117

Reading Rajinder Singh Bedi’s Quarantine as a Pathographic Tale in the Indian Cultural Context- Ms. Sudha Krishnan.....126

Replication of Buddhist Philosophy and Literature in Charyāpadas: An Analysis- Dr. Tripti Dhar.....133